CHAP. 910.—An Act To authorize preparation and publication of supplements to the Code of Laws of the United States with perfecting amendments, printing of bills to codify the laws relating to the District of Columbia and of such code and of supplements thereto, and for distribution.

May 29, 1928.
[H. R. 13621.]
[Public, No. 620.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there be prepared and published under the supervision of the Committee on Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives a supplement to the Code of Laws of the United States in one volume, in the style and form of said code, to contain the general and permanent laws of the United States enacted during the Sixty-ninth Congress and in force December 5, 1927, a restatement of such statutes or parts of statutes as were inaccurately set forth in the code, and statutes of a general and permanent nature in force December 6, 1925, omitted from the code, and other perfecting amendments to the code, together with preface, table of contents, parallel reference tables, table of statutes repealed since December 6, 1925, and indexes on durable paper and bound in buckram with thumb inserts and other devices to distinguish the parts, and with such explanatory and advertising slips as seem suitable.

Supplement to Code of the Laws of the United States. Preparation and publication of, authorized. Contents. Post, p. 1540.

SEC. 2. That in addition there be prepared and published under the supervision of said committee a supplement containing the general and permanent laws of each session of the Seventieth and succeeding Congresses, cumulatively embracing the legislation and ancillaries of the preceding supplement or supplements.

Supplements of general and permanent laws of 70th and succeeding Congresses, to be prepared in addition. Post, p. 1541.

SEC. 3. That said committee is hereby authorized to print bills to codify, revise, and reenact the general and permanent laws relating to the District of Columbia and cumulative supplements thereto, similar in style, respectively, to the Code of Laws of the United States, and supplements thereto, and to so continue until final enactment thereof in both Houses of the Congress of the United States.

Bills to codify, etc., general and permanent laws of District of Columbia, authorized to be printed.

SEC. 4. That in all courts, tribunals, and public offices of the United States, at home or abroad, of the District of Columbia, and of each State, Territory, or insular possession of the United States, the laws set forth in the supplements provided for by sections 1 and 2 of this Act shall, together with the Code of Laws of the United States, so amended and supplemented, establish prima facie the laws of the United States, general and permanent in their nature.

Laws in the Code and supplements prima facie evidence of the laws of the United States.

SEC. 5. That copies of the Code of Laws relating to the District of Columbia, when and if completed, and copies of the supplements provided for by this Act, printed at the Government Printing Office and bearing its imprint, shall be conclusive evidence of the original of such code and supplements in the custody of the Secretary of State.

Copies of the Code of Laws of District of Columbia, and supplements, conclusive evidence of the originals.

SEC. 6. That copies of the Code of Laws relating to the District of Columbia, when and if completed, and of the supplements provided for by this Act shall be distributed by the Superintendent of Documents in the same manner as bound volumes of the Statutes at Large: Provided, That no slip or pamphlet copies of the Code of Laws relating to the District of Columbia, when and if completed, and of the supplements provided for by this Act need be printed or distributed: And provided further, That the Code of Laws relating to the District of Columbia, when and if completed, and the supplements provided for by this Act shall, upon enactment, be published as separate parts of the Statutes at Large.

Distribution of the District Code and supplements.

Provisos. No slip copies, etc., to be printed.

To be separate parts of Statutes at Large.
